

Allison Smith Davis
1965 ~ 2011

Our beloved mother, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, April 16, 2011, in San Antonio, Texas. Born in Salt Lake City, Utah, on December 13, 1965, to Ronald W. and Patricia S. Smith, Allison was always a wonderful daughter.

Growing up, Allison had many friends and was very active in church and school. In high school she competed on the gymnastics team and performed with the drill team. She attended LDS Business College and later worked as an administrative assistant at law and financial investment firms. Allison was an accomplished pianist and a talented seamstress. She enjoyed designing and constructing artistic throw pillows, and always took time to thoughtfully craft special gifts to give to each of the children at family celebrations.

Allison married Clay Simmons (later divorced) and they were blessed with two wonderful children. Former husbands also include Reid Dixon and David Davis. Allison is survived by her dear daughter Abby; courageous son Ethan; beloved parents; caring brothers and sister, Derrick (Stephanie), Darrin (Nanette), and Kristianne Aguilera; and treasured nieces and nephews.

The viewing will be held at Goff Mortuary, 8090 S. State Street on Monday, April 25th from 6:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. Graveside services will be held at 12:00 Noon on Tuesday, April 26th at the Draper City Cemetery, 12450 South 900 East.
