

Dee Lamar Morrow
1921 ~ 2011

Our beloved father, Dee Lamar Morrow, was a World War II veteran, a member of our greatest generation. Dee was a husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, teacher and friend. Dee passed away peacefully June 25, 2011 surrounded by his loving family. He will be greatly missed.

He was born March 23, 1921 to James and Rebecca Morrow.

Survived by wife, Betty; daughters, Jean (Bruce) Ostler, Kathy (Brent) Haun; son, Dee L. Morrow Jr.; ten grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Dee worked and retired from Kennecott Copper after 30 years of service. Dee loved fishing and projects with his kids.

“We love you, Dad.”

Graveside services will be held Saturday, July 2, at 2 p.m. at Sandy City Cemetery, 9000 South 700 East. The family will greet friends Saturday one hour prior to services at Goff Mortuary, 8090 So. State, Midvale.

Our special thanks to First Choice Hospice and Nurse Cassie.
