"We Love You, Grandma!"

Our wonderful, treasured wife, mom, and grandma returned to her Heavenly Father on October 26, 2011. She passed away after her courageous battle with cancer. Also a beloved daughter, sister, aunt and friend to so many. Born on February 18, 1946, the second of six children born to John and Gertrude Russell. She was a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, where she devotedly served in many callings. She attended Ricks College. She had a variety of jobs and excelled at her work. She served a LDS mission to Switzerland. She married John Merle Nash in the Salt Lake Temple in 1972.

Her greatest joy in life was serving the Lord and her family, especially her grandkids. She devoted her life to teaching, helping, supporting, and loving her family. She had a great sense of humor and always made things fun with her creative ideas. She enjoyed playing the piano, reading books, and loved to learn. She centered her life on Jesus Christ and helped others to do the same. She was selfless, loving, full of charity, and hard working. She was the glue in her family and will be greatly missed by all of us. She touched many lives for good. Her example, service, teachings, and love for each of us will be remembered forever. She loved being in the temple and had a passion for genealogy, family history, and faithfully writing in her journal everyday. She always went the extra mile to serve others and make them feel special. We love you and will miss you greatly, until we meet again!!

She is survived by her husband, John Merle Nash; her children, Stacy Sosa, Clint Nash, Deven (Michelle) Nash, Lara (Jeff) Curtis; her grandchildren, KC, Kylie, Kody, Kaitlyn, Noah, Elizabeth, and Ava; her mother, Gertrude Russell; siblings, Renee Simpson, Janet Collett, Beverly Clark, and Jay Russell; as well as countless others who love her dearly.
