

Gail Henry McDonald Jr.

My "Bigmac"

09/10/1950 - 04/03/2011

Gail passed away on April 3, 2011 following complications from a short illness. Gail was surrounded by his family and friends. Gail was born in Salt Lake, Utah to Gail and Dorothy McDonald. He married his loving sweetheart, Sheila Heath, July 27, 1973. Gail and Sheila were best friends and deeply loved each other every day.

Gail is survived by his wife, Sheila; children, Natalie and Mathew; and his grandchildren, Nicole, Jimmy, Tyler, Makenzee, Kysen, Jo-Jo and Elliott. Also survived by his mother, Dorothy; and sisters, Maurine (Brent) Moore and Carol Susaeta. Preceded in death by his father, Gail H. McDonald Sr.; and sister, Marilyn McDonald.

Gail shared a special bond with his oldest granddaughter, sweet Nicole, who never left his side. Gail loved time spent at his cabin, and with his family and friends. Gail is also survived by a loving family of nieces, nephews, sister and brother-in-laws, and many friends.

The family thanks all staff at Alta View for loving care of Gail. A special thank you to our dear friend, Kathy Erdmann, for her constant love and caring.

A celebration of Gail's life will be held from 5:30-8:00 p.m. Monday April 11, 2011 at the Lone Peak Pavilion, 700 East 10140 South, Sandy, Utah. No flowers please, just come and share a memory of Gail. Please dress casual.
