

Jeffrey James Schnakenberg
1972 ~ 2011

Jeffrey James Schnakenberg was born on October 6th, 1972 and has passed on October 12th, 2011, 6 days after his 39th birthday. Jeff was a very loving and caring person with the biggest heart I have even seen a man have. He lived his life to the fullest in everything that he did and conquered so many challenges in his life that he will remain a true leader and hero to everyone's life he touched.

Jeff gave everything he had to the people that surrounded him, even till the last day he passed. He was the most devoted husband a woman could ever ask for and a father like no other man can ever be. He taught the people that knew him best that love is the strongest bond anyone can have with another and that there is more beauty in the smallest things in life than anything else. Most of all he taught us to believe in the impossible and that your dreams are worth remembering.

He was surrounded by a very loving family that cared for him in ways some could only imagine, and is survived by his wife and best friend, Rebekah; his children; brother, Edward; parents, Brian Schnakenberg and Em-orn Schnakenberg, and whole lot of family and friends that love him.

His funeral will be held at Goff Mortuary on 8090 South State Street, Midvale, UT on October 19th, 2011, with the viewing beginning at 4:30 p.m. with services following at 6:00 p.m. We ask that you please do not send flowers and if you could donate to Jeffrey James Schnakenberg memorial fund in support of his youngest child at Cyprus Credit Union.
