

Naydean Jimas Bauer
"Yiayia"

On Sunday morning, July 17, 2011, Naydean Jimas Bauer passed away in Heber, Utah surrounded by her children.

Naydean was born on April 25, 1925 in Logan, Utah to Henry and Ebba Lundahl.

Naydean, lovingly known as Yiayia, was an outstanding mother who did everything she could for each individual in her family. This unconditional love is far reaching into each generation, serving as an everlasting memory of her caring devotion. Naydean enjoyed gardening, cooking for everyone, and teaching rollerskating classes in her youth. She found much joy and satisfaction by being active in Relief Society all of her life. We will miss her playful soul and her uncanny ability to bring joy into the lives of all those she met.

Though she will be missed here on Earth, as a family we are profoundly excited for Mom to be reunited with her husband, Andy once again.

Naydean is survived by her children, Kathie, Debbie, Dixie, Kimball and Cassey; 16 grandchildren; 24 great grandchildren; sister, Lenora Petersen. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband, Andrew Jimas; son, Mike Jimas, her four sisters, and her parents.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, July 26, 2011 at 1:00 p.m. at the Goff Mortuary, 8090 South State Street, Midvale. Friends and family are welcome to visit one hour prior to the services.

Naydean will be laid to rest beside her husband following the services at Bountiful City Cemetery, 2224 South 200 West.

The family would like to thank the staff at the Rocky Mountain Care Center for all of their love and their support during the last few years and this difficult time.
