

Norma S. Woodard
1936 ~ 2011

Norma Steadman Woodard, 75, passed away Oct. 15, 2011 in West Jordan, Utah. She was born Feb. 8, 1936 in Murray, Utah to Alva and Grace Steadman.

She married Glen Woodard, he later preceded her in death.

She worked at Beneficial Life and Deseret Mutual for many years. She taught Primary for 40 years and had many of her students' children bring their children back to her. She touched so many lives and was a shining example to anyone that knew her.

She enjoyed knitting and crocheting, and enjoyed giving her creations to family and friends. She was close to family and loved her parents, brothers, sisters, and nieces and nephews dearly. The joy of her life was her grandson, and they had a very special relationship. She will be greatly missed.

Survived by son, Rodger; grandson, TJ (Travis); sister, Mary Ann Steadman; brothers, Elden A. (Connie) Steadman, and Dale (Kathy) Steadman. Preceded in death by sisters, Carol Jean and Vickie Lee.

Graveside services will be held Friday, Oct. 21, at 2 p.m. at the West Jordan City Cemetery, 7800 South 1300 West. There will be a viewing Thursday 6-8 p.m. at Goff Mortuary, 8090 So. State, Midvale.
