

Opal Cox Webb
11/25/1922 - 8/9/2011

Opal Eloy Cox Webb, of Draper, loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully Aug. 9, 2011, surrounded by devoted family.

Opal was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 25, 1922, to Lyman Ray Cox and Anna Dora Christensen Cox. She married Arnold Melvin Webb on May 14, 1946.

Opal worked successfully through the PTA and Utah Legislature to improve educational opportunities and conditions for special needs children. She was a member of the American Legion Women's Auxiliary, and took out her endowments in 2007. She loved playing games, family reunions, and any gathering where there were laughter and children. While enduring years of dialysis and illness Opal was cheered by visits from adoring grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Survivors: husband, Arnold of Draper; children, Billy Eloy Lance (Becky), Sandy; Sharon Webb Kelsey (Dick), Phoenix, Arizona; M. Brent Webb, Draper; and Kevin Tracy Webb, Draper; 8 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; and a sister. Preceded in death by her parents; 3 brothers; 2 sisters; first husband, Myron Lance; and a daughter, Karon Webb.

Services will be held Monday, August 15, 2011 at 12:00 p.m. in the Draper 7th Ward Chapel, 12300 South 600 East. A viewing will be held at Goff Mortuary, 8090 So. State, on Sunday from 6-8 p.m. and again on Monday at the church from 11-11:45 a.m. Interment, Larkin Sunset Gardens, 10600 South 1950 East, Sandy.
