

Philip John Ortega
1958 ~ 2011

Born in Murray, Utah July 12, 1958 to Albino A. Ortega and Guadalupe Trujillo Ortega; left us May 3, 2011 at the young age of 52.

Philip retired from Midvale City after several years of service. Phil enjoyed camping, hunting and four wheeling. He taught his children, family and friends what it meant to live life to the fullest. Phil enjoyed taking his family to the great outdoors and using his many catch phrases; the one most remembered would be, "Hey lady, over here."

Enough can't be said about the love he had for his children, grandchildren and great granddaughter. Philip J. Ortega will be truly missed by all who knew him.

Survived by mother, Guadalupe Ortega; children, Richard (Beatrice); Monic; Latoya; Jenica; Jose; grandchildren, Sarha; Gabby; Tino; Nessa; Jayson; Nanna; Abreeah; CC; RJ; Philip; great granddaughter, Baby Girl. siblings, Priscilla; Lawrence (Ida); Rose (Mike); Elva; Patricia (Fred); Rick (Kelly); Carlos (Deb); Lori (Frank); sister in law, Helga; many nieces and nephews; very special friends, Jeanette and Ernie; Mike and Becca. Preceded in death by his father, Albino A. Ortega; sister, Belinda; brothers, Roy and Balbino; niece, Lisa; brother in law, Roger; grandparents, uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.
